United Nations Educational, Science and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) hereby informs the invited qualified companies that:

Due to circumstances beyond UNESCO’s control, the agreement with the donor of this project could not be signed. Hence, we regret to inform you that the procurement process for this project is cancelled.

UNESCO extends its sincere apologies for the inconveniences this may have caused to any interested company.

Please note that this does not prevent interested organizations from participating in future tenders that will be organized by UNESCO in the framework of other projects.

UNESCO greatly appreciates any efforts undertaken by interested bidders and is looking forward to working with them in future.

Kind regards,
