Question	Answer
Will Proposers have an opportunity in the future to amend 2021 - 2023 volumes and prices indicated in the bid, as additional information about production economics and the market landscape become available?	As indicated in the Request for Proposal, under Part II/ article 4, all proposals should be valid until December 2021. It has been also indicated under Part IV, article 1.1.4 that prices offered by Proposers, will constitute maximum ceiling prices and cannot be increased for the duration of the tender period and during the validity of Proposal. Prices may be reduced at any time. Extra volumes can be offered at any time, however, will be reviewed further through various channels as explained in the RFP document to be included under subsequent LTAs.
