UNITED NATIONS CHILDREN’S FUND (UNICEF)

Wishes to invite you to submit a proposal for the provision of

CONSULTANCY SERVICES FOR TRAINING DEVELOPMENT
To develop comprehensive training materials on respect for children’s rights for a business audience

Proposals must be submitted via UNICEF Web Bidding Tool:

<https://ungm.in-tend.co.uk/unicef-pfp.aspx/Home>

The purpose of this Request for Proposal for Services (RFPS) is to seek proposals from UNICEF is seeking a service provider capable of developing an in-depth and adaptable training package for business audiences on the integration of respect for children’s rights into business practice. Trainings will be developed to be delivered by external facilitators with sustainable business expertise, but limited knowledge of children’s right, necessitating accompanying facilitator’s guidance and resources. The intended audience are business professionals with a role in implementing responsible business practices in their respective companies. This may be sustainability or CSR professionals, but could also include professionals in regulatory compliance, human resources, supply chain and procurement roles.

Please note that UNICEF is only seeking service providers for the development of the training package, and not the actual delivery of training for businesses.

The objectives of developing this training package are to:

- Identify and fill knowledge gaps, enhance capacity of key actors, and scale best practices through business and industry platforms to measurably improve the wellbeing of children, families, and communities.
- Raise awareness of the need for holistic business approaches to children’s rights, and concomitantly, boost the profile of children’s rights on the responsible business agenda.
- Build accessible and adaptable “go-to” resource packs for business audiences on priority CRB areas which leverage current, relevant, and effectively communicated training materials.

Should your company be qualified and interested in this bidding opportunity, please register in the UNICEF-PFP e-tendering system to access the complete RFPS package - please follow the registration procedure attached to this notification.
