The Center for Mediterranean Integration - CMI

CMI : The Center for Mediterranean Integration (CMI) is a partnership where international development agencies, governments, local authorities, and civil society from around the Mediterranean convene to exchange ideas, discuss public policies, and identify regional solutions to address regional challenges in the Mediterranean.

As of July 1st, 2021, and eleven years after its creation, the CMI has officially been hosted by the United Nations Office for Project Services (UNOPS).

The CMI aims at playing a highly influential role through the expertise and technical rigor it brings to Mediterranean dialogues. By building synergies among Mediterranean stakeholders (governments, funding institutions, private entrepreneurs, civil society), the CMI's program is expected to have a transformational effect in the region. This bid concerns the water program which is financed by Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCDO).
