Pre-Bid meeting
Meeting Introduction	AT opened the pre-bid meeting by thanking the participants for attendance, outlined the purpose of the meeting and introduced the UNOPS representatives.
Process Presentation	AT then continued explaining the aim of the Pre-Bid meeting presentation which was to explain in detail the subject RFQ's content and particulars, the questionnaire, the evaluation criteria, the checklist of documents to be submitted, and the contents of the Documents' section, which included Section I - Instructions to Offerors, Section II - Schedule of Requirements, Section III - Returnable Bidding Forms, Section IV - Contract Forms. The meeting participants were given a detailed overview of the UNOPS requirements, how bidders should submit their quotations, what forms and documents were mandatory and which ones were optional. This was done in order to help all potential suppliers in preparing their submissions better and have a clear understanding of the documents that are required to be submitted with their submissions.
Questions and Answers	After the presentation was done from UNOPS side, the floor was opened for Questions by the Bidders, as below: Q1: What is the budget allocation for each LOT? if it is available for the suppliers?  A1: Allocated budget cannot be disclosed to the bidders. Q2: Is the last date for bid submission 11pm 26th June 2023?  A2: The bid submission deadline is on 26 June 2023 14:00 Tashkent time Q3: Will all the documents be submitted online via the portal of UNOPS?

	A3: Yes. All the returnable bidding documents together with other supporting documents, as necessary, must be uploaded and submitted through UNOPS eSourcing platform.. Q4: If the bidder is successful for 3 LOTs does it mean that a bidder can get one contract for 3 LOTs? A4: Yes, one contract for all three LOTs may be issued in such a case. However, UNOPS also reserves the right to issue separate contracts for each lot at different points of time. Q5: Reference is made to requirements for lead times stated as “Availability at FCA point should be within 60 days” and availability in Tashkent, Uzbekistan “within 90 days”. Basically there is 30 days to deliver the goods to the country and the question is whether within these 30 days or prior to that a Tax exemption letter and any other documents required for importing the goods into the country will be provided by UNOPS? A5: Provided that shipping documents for the goods are provided on time (as soon as prepared and prior to or immediately upon shipment of the goods), provision of any required letter or other documentation in a timely manner for customs clearance shall be the responsibility of the Consignee or UNOPS. UNOPS will welcome if goods are made ready earlier than those prescribed minimum timelines. Q6: Regarding the storage in Tashkent before distribution, do you know for how many days? A6: Reference is made to Section II: Schedule of Requirements, Section II.1: Summary of the required goods and services, point no 7, where it is stated: “...These services, i.e. delivery of the goods from Tashkent to all the final destinations and performance of the related services at final destinations must be completed within 60 days after goods’ arrival to Tashkent, Uzbekistan”. Accordingly, you need to plan the storage duration in Tashkent taking into consideration your in-country logistics, installation and other services, which must not exceed 60 days from the date of goods’ arrival to your warehouse in Tashkent. Q7: Can the pre-bid presentation be sent to bidders by email? A7: The pre-bid meeting minutes shall be uploaded under the Documents’ Tab of the RFQ. The presentation however shall not be shared, as it does not contain any new information compared to what’s already stated in the RFQ. Bidders are encouraged to read the RFQ and refer to the requirements stated therein.
Meeting Conclusion	AT concluded the meeting by thanking the participants for their attendance. The meeting ended at 15:44 hrs, Tashkent time.
