

Dear Supplier/Contractor,

Please, read the following three paragraphs then sign and stamp below:

(I) The supplier/contractor acknowledges that UNICEF may need to hold all shipments in the country of origin until UNICEF receives pre-approval from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) and the clearance from the line ministry of government of Syria relating to the imported goods.

(II) The supplier/contractor agrees to observe and abide by the import and re-export laws, regulations, and issuances of the Syrian Arab republic relating directly or indirectly to the imported goods, including, but not limited to the law that stipulates in general that it is prohibited to import, sell, purchase, or transport any Israeli or Turkish goods and products, bearing sole liability for any delays and/or prohibitions of import of the contracted upon goods into the Syrian Arab republic resulting directly or indirectly from the suppliers unawareness, ignorance and/or lack of knowledge of any of the aforementioned laws, regulations, and issuances.

(III) The supplier/contractor agrees, within an appropriate period of time, to provide UNICEF with any documentation on the imported goods required by the Syrian Arab Republic relevant authorities to clear and/or approve the import of such goods. Any delay and/or financial burdens occurring in the port clearance due to non-availability of such documents or failure of the Supplier to provide the required documents will be the sole liability of the Supplier, who will bear all financial expenses resulting from such delay/prohibition, including but not limited to accumulated demurrage charges, port clearance charges, destruction of goods at the port and the expenses related to re-export of goods in case that becomes inevitable.

I have read and fully understand the content of this document. I agree to the terms and conditions stated above.
