Questions	Answers
1.) In the Clarification Note No. 2 it was noted that “UNIDO does not have all the data requested. The supplier is welcome to visit the facility in Belarus to sample and analyze the stored waste. In case a visit is foreseen by the supplier, they should communicate this to UNIDO within a reasonable timeframe before the end of the submission deadline. A site visit can be held individually or in a group and has to be accompanied by a UNIDO Representative.” Could you explain how we can request the visit to sampling? Where is the site visit area located? The special storages of CUE (Beneficiary) territory (Dubrovka village, Chechersk district, Gomel region, Belarus? Is it right?	1. The site visit can be arranged by emailing our national coordinator, Andrei Pinihin (A.PINIHIN@unido.org; CC: M.DETHLEFSEN@unido.org; S.HASENOEHRL@unido.org), who will coordinate with CUE. This address is correct.
